Thabang R.
Full-Stack Developer

I blend technical precision and creativity to deliver efficient, intuitive and impactful digital solutions.

ABOUT

Who I Am

Hi. I'm Thabang Ramaano, and I am a Full-Stack Developer with over 10 years of experience in my fields of expertise.

I specialize in building websites and apps that balance creativity and functionality to meet the specified needs. Alongside development, I have experience in UI/UX and graphic design, ensuring that my work is both visually appealing and user-friendly.

My aim is to keep developing digital products that are efficient, intuitive and impactful, with seamless user experiences built on innovative technology.

EXPERIENCE

Where I've Been

Throughout my career, I've worked with a wide range of clients and teams in different roles and environments. From intern to senior developer, each experience taught me something new and broadened my expertise.
